

The KNEADING CONFERENCE

Work Study Scholarship Application Form

The Kneading Conference Work Study Program is intended for those who show high interest in the field of wood-fired baking and/or local grain growing and who need help in meeting the expense of the July 27-28, 2017 conference. In exchange for a $225 scholarship and ample time attending conference workshops and lectures, work/study applicants will be asked to volunteer on Wednesday, July 26th through Saturday, July 29th (the day of the Maine Artisan Bread Fair). Duties will include helping with set up, clean up and other tasks in the kitchen, assisting presenters and helping around the conference grounds. You may also be asked to distribute posters and flyers in the months leading up to the conference.

Applications are reviewed and filled on a rolling basis. If you are accepted into Work Study a $50 deposit is required on notification. The remaining balance is due before July 1st, 2017.
